Astrologically spoken 2011 is a venus-year – a year of love. „This CD is our tribut to this special year“, Jürgen Plank says about this collection of 5 lovesongs. The first song „A Pair Of Brown Eyes“ tells about modesty and about a restless guy, who doesn't actually need more than a cup of coffee and a look into a pair of brown eyes.

„Wintersnow“ is a christmas-song, telling about and old couple, that we saw once walking along. The last song „100 Rainy Days“ is an electro-country-song that includes classical as well as reggae-influences and a steel-guitar: In the end there is hope and again modesty, „100 Rainy Days“ contains the lines: „I feel sunshine on my face / after 100 rainy days.“

The songs are worldwide released (digitally) and are released physically as a limited edition (100 copies): Austrian artists Sascha Mallon, who is now New York-based designed 100 unique sleeves, that way one gets a tiny work of art in combination with the „5 Great Love Songs.“
